FIRE DEPARTMENT NEWS

14 alarms were answered for the month of May, 10 of which were ambulance calls an 4 were fires.

Positively no open fires. All containers must be completely out by 1 p. m. each day. Permits must be obtained for containers.

It is strictly against the law to sell or discharge any fireworks or firecrackers in Brisbane. We are asking the children to please do not discharge same as the grass is very dry and it would be very dangerous.

The firemen are burning the grass as fast as they can and would appreciate the cooperation of the parents as well as the children.

Anyone caught shooting off fireworks or firecrackers will be punished by law which means a fine or imprisonment or both.

Do not throw any rubbish or tree trimmings in vacant lots. Any person caught doing same will be punished to the full extent of the law.

The Police and Fire Departments are working 100 per cent together and will have a very close watch and a patrol watch to see that the laws are enforced in the above laws mentioned.

We wish to thank everyone for the support which they have given in the past years in keeping our fire loss down. Keep up the good work this year.

L. H. Terry, Chief.

The Fire Dept. would like to ask everyone to have their garden hose hooked up to their faucets around the building during the summer months of the year.

The Fire Phone number is JUniper 7-0189 — and the Police Phone: JUniper 7-2000.

In case of fire do not delay — use your phone or turn in Fire Alarm box immediately.

BRISBANE ORGANNIZES BOYS CLUB

By Bob Mink

Brisbane, determined not to be outdone, now has a boys club The boys are doing a wonderful job with it, and are enjoying the chance.

The age limit is 10 - 18 and all boys between these ages are welcome to join.

We've already put on one dance and another one is in the making now.

All dues are at present, going into the treasury as we are planning a lot of sports for next year and will probably need new uniforms.

The officers anre: Dick Firth, Secretary - Treasurer; Mansel Roland, Vice-President; and Bob Mink, President.

The dues are 25 cents a week and meetings are held at the Recreation Hall on Monday nights. at 7:30 P. M.

This organization is dedicated to the welfare of its members, and I'm sorry to say, is not drawing as many high school boys as it is the gramar school boys. It is the young boys who are upholding our organization and doing a good job of it.

The Boys Club has also, a newly formed dance band. We're still short a few pieces. We're missing a trombone player and piano player. We need drums for our drummer and if possible, a guitar player. All these hardships show that we've got a good club because, in spite of these things the boys keep coming down to practice on Wednesday nights.

If you're thinking of joining the Boys Club, come down next Monday night and we'll see what we can do. I would like to see more of the high school boys down there—what do you say?!!?

RECREATION SPORT NEWS

On Saturday, June 11th at Orange Avenue Park in South San Francisco, the Brisbane Park Recreation Team beat San Bruno 1 to 0 to win the northern division of the "Peninsula Little-Big Baseball League." This ended the season for Brisbane with 10 wins, 1 loss.

The next games for Brisbane will be a 2 out of 3 game play off with Redwood City for the San Mateo County Championship and the "Lefty O'Doul" trophy. These games will be played as soon as arrangements can be made.

All Brisbane can be proud of its team as they have showed fine sportsmanship and the will to win throughout the season. This was Brisbane's first year in the league and with their new uniforms and all they have showed the Peninsula they are not to be taken for granted.

Pitcher Don Delbon who is the league's youngest pitcher turned out to be the league's best by far In 8 league games Delbon pitched he got 82 strikeouts and allowed only 25 hits. On top of this amazing record young Delbon ended the sason with a .529 batting average which in itself is amazing and led his team mates.

Little Richard Trantham was a standant in his role as lead off batter by working the opposing pitchers for 27 walks. Once on base little Richard was a real threat with his heads-up base running and his fastness afoot. All in all each team member was as valuable as the next as each individual contribution made the team the winning combination it was. These boys are to be congratulated by all for the fine job very well done.

Team members and their batting averages:
Richard Trantham - .105; Dick Fiart, .285; Larry Blanchard .333 Mansel Roland, .451; Donald Delbon, .529; Bob Butcher, .222; Snooky Mayes, 411; Harry Schmidt, .300; William Green, .166; Murrell Peddicord, .208; and Don Kline, 000.

Thanking you,
Eddie Davenport.

WOMEN'S CORNER

By BRIS - BETTE

Sweet are the uses of adversity.
—Shakespeare.

One September day in 1937 or 1941, eight or twelve years ago, a child skipped gayly down the path and out of sight, the cap of adversity sitting proudly on his head. June 1949, the same child is marching down the aisle, the coveted piece of paper clutched tightly in hand, the series of events which opposes success or desire, happiness, or unhappiness are passed, one of the big chapters of life is ended. Somewhere in the audience are the proud parents, their happiness mingled with a bit of sadness. In one section of the room is a group of instructors, a relaxed expression on their happy faces. The last voice echoes in the empty auditorium, the lock clicks, and summer vacation is here! Nothing to worry about except sunburn and boredom.

The Recreation grounds has a new dress of green, as if it were trying to entice the disbanded teen-agers back into the fold, while the tired brown lots are waiting for the blackout. All definite signs of summer.

* * *

WHEN the temperature is high, there is nothing like a tall ice-filled drink. And since the most energetic feel lazy, the preparation should be simple. A real thirst quencher is iced tea. If you wish to dress up the drink, when refilling your refrigerator trays, drop a few mint leaves of green and red cherries into each ice-cube section. To your usual iced-tea drink, add grapefruit juice or orange juice. Garnish with your ice cubes.

Iced Cocoa is good. Make cocoa via usual recipe: 4 to 5 tablespoons sugar, 1½ cups water, pinch of salt, 4 cups milk, a few drops of vanilla extract. Combine Cocoa, sugar, water, and salt in the top of a double boiler over direct heat. Stir until smooth; then boil two minutes. Add the milk and heat over boiling water. Add vanilla. Cool, and pour over cracked ice into tall glasses. Top with whipped cream, and dust with nutmeg or cinnamon.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS:

When in doubt about how much baking powder to use, a helpful generality says one teaspoon of baking powder to each cup of flour.

Bathroom tiles gleam when polished wiht a cloth which has been soaked in turpentine or lemon juice.

It isn't necessary to remove the purple stamping from meat before cooking—stamping is made with vegetable coloring and is perfectly harmless.

Sliced bananas can be prevented from turning black by sprinkling or dipping them in grapefruit, orange, lemon or pineapple juice.

Here are tips for plastic sewing. When you sew with the plastics plan to do it on a fairly cool day so that the material will be plable while you work with it. Never have the stitching too small and avoid tightness while sewing. Let the plastic run easily through the machine needle, without attempting to stretch or pull it. Whether making aprons or curtains, clever edgings or appliques will make them more attractive.

HOME TOWN.

In Newton, Pennsylvania the passage of trucks hauling coal endangered children and raised so much dust that housewives could not hang out their wash. Then 35 of these harassed housewives barricated the road with benches, chairs, etc., and stood guard while waiting for the road to be oiled and for the promise of more cautious driving. Perhaps the same tactics could be applied should the Brisbane housewives ever have to choke with blinding dust as they did a few years ago, when all the excavating was taking place in Guadalupe Valley.

One night a young Kentucky mountaineer was standing guard at an Army post, when an officer nearly seven feet tall, approached.

"Halt!" challenged the Kentuckian. "Who goes there?"

"Major White," the officer replied. "Advance and be recognized."

The major approached. The sentry stood at port arms. Suddenly the major's huge arm lashed out and jerked the rifle from the soldier.

"You're one devil of a soldier," the major barked. "Here you are—rendered completely helpless."

"Ah don't know about that," the young mountaineer retorted, and the major found himself looking down the barrel of a .38 revolver which had unaccountably appeared from the soldier's shirt. "All ah kin say, major, is that you'd better hand over that rifle. It ain't loaded but this pistol is."

CHAMBERS OF COMMERCE ARE PPUBLIC BENEFACTORS

The ever-changing American language is constantly being augmented, if not enriched, by new terms, meanings, and connotations. One of those now added to common usage is the term 'free-rider' as applied to persons who reap the benefit of the concerted actions of others without hemselves contributing time, thought, or money to the beneficial action.

The term is not strictly an epithet, because in many cases it applies to persons who have been merely thoughtless, careless, or unadvised of what others are doing in their behalf.

A case in point is that of the chambers of commerce to be found in San Mateo's cities and communities. A great many persons owe their support to these helpful organizations, but have never given such support because they do not know what the local chamber of commerce has done, directly or indirectly, to aid their own businesses or interests. Stil others have not given support simply because they have never been invited to join.

In San Mateo as in the other cities of the county, the members of the chamber of commerce do a great deal to aid the city and all of its residents. Any honest survey of chamber activity will quickly show that the members are not concerned solely with their own interests, but are quick in every movement on the public behalf.

By working in unison with a program of definite, agreed direction, a chamber of commerce can, and does, establish a vital force in the community, and this force is invariably used for general betterment. The chambers set up uniformity of business hours, holidays, and special events, for the benefit of the citizens and their own members. In the cities where industrial development is actively sought, the chambers of commerce are always in the lead to bring in new industry, together with the increased prosperity and stability that the expansion of business an the creation of payrolls can bring.

The chambers of commerce are the 'front men' for their cities, zealous to put the best municipal foot forward, active in advertising, public relations, and all manner of contacts with those who seek or should have information about the cities.

Not the least of their functions is the answering of questions, and almost everyone knows that for reliable information on any city, the best place to apply is the chamber of commerce.

All these activities and others are an integral and functional part of the life of a progressive city. They are worthy of support from every citizen and businessman.

Those who do not now belong to a chamber of commerce would do well to make an honest appraisal of their own position in each city and discover whether or not they are "free-rders" when others are assisting in mutual endeavors beneficial to all.

FEDERAL SECURITY AGENCY

Social Security Administration Don't Use Social Security Cards To Identify Check Cashers!

A social security card is no guarantee of financial solvency. So says Edward J. Foley, manager of the San Mateo Social Security Administration office. The cards are issued only for the purpose of keeping records of wages paid where the job comes under social security, so that proper benefits can be paid at death or retirement.

There have been some cases reported in the press where merchants and others have cashed checks based only on the social security card as identification, and the checks have later "bounced." Don't be half-safe; be certain of indentity through other ways than soial security card.

Social security cards are issued to all those needing them for card. It is only a guarantee that when used by the proper person when working that wages will be credited to his social security benefit account.

Further information about social security system of Old-age and Survivors Insurance can be secured from the San Mateo Social Security Office at 42 North B St. employment, but no identification is required when they are issued Therefore the card in itself is no guarantee that the person named thereon is the one who has the
